

MS-200 Masking a Multi-Port Firewall

A firewall protecting 4 segments is fully masked by an MS-200 using 5 ports. The firewall, its network hops, the MS-200, and the server are now invisible to mapping attempts. The workgroup switches for each network segment are also masked on the ports where they each connect to the MS-200.